THE PALAIS BOYAL

Spreads of your experience.

The police inspection of the garbage matter resulting as it has already in a report showing gross dereliction of duty and insufficiency of means, is likely to do considerably more than that. The appointment yesterday by the Com-missioners of Lieut. Hollinberger and twentyseven men picked, three from each of the nine police precincts in the city, to act as an auxil-fary to the health department, gives promise of good results. It probably means as competent a supervision as is possible with the force at command. Certainly with only about oneseventh of the garbage removed on a given now.
